

01

WHAT?

TWM offers support to Christian pastors and churches who desire to build power in marriages and families by providing valuable, engaging, and transformative relationship content.

02

WHY?

Couples need guidance, on relationship and family issues, based on Christian values and practical biblical principles.

03

WHY US?

We are a dedicated team, with skills and experience, who can engage and support married couples as they work to build resilient marriages. Our team is committed to equipping couples with tools and skills to help sustain their union and navigate major life transitions.

04

WHY NOW?

Healthy marriages and families serving together serve as a positive witness to the power of faith and its impact on relationships and community. Our services are designed to help Christian Churches stay relevant and responsive to the needs of the church community. From concept to delivery, we ensure compelling, quality content every time.

05

WHY NOT?

By ministering to couples, churches can better support and strengthen marriages, leading to healthier families and a more vibrant church community.
